14. COMMENTS

Built by pedigree shipyard Oceanco, H3 offers the very best of on-water living and entertainment through her impressive range of state-of-the-art facilities across her 105m hull.

Interiors have been created by Reymond Langton Design, utilising a soft and light colour palette with earthy furnishings throughout. Geometric patterns adorn the flooring with vertical and horizontal lines across the walls and ceiling. Floor-to-ceiling windows and light features illuminate her interior throughout.

H3 features an interactive video wall, creating a passage between her main deck welcome lounge and main salon. The Owner's lounge features a sofa setting, formal dining area and wine cellar. The forward-facing sundeck gym provides an area for exercise, and the lower deck offers further amenities with a hair and beauty salon, massage room/hospital and hammam.

For outdoor entertainment her sun deck offers uninterrupted views with a dedicated bar and seating, along with a forward-facing whirlpool. Expansive living spaces are found across her bridge, Owner's and main deck, offering areas for sunbathing, alfresco dining and swimming with a concealable pool. Steps down lead to a state-of-the-art beach club, complete with seating and dining areas and a fold down swim platform.

H3 provides accommodation for up to 20 guests across 10 cabins. Her forward-facing full-beam owner suite is complete with his and hers ensuites, walk in wardrobes and lounge seating. The VIP suite includes his and hers ensuites, a private lounge and deck. The remainder of the guest accommodation comprises of five doubles and three twin cabins.

H3 comes with a comprehensive selection of toys and tenders from sport tenders and Seabobs, to all board types, kayaks and dive equipment.
